

WDJO Oldies Train December 9, 2011

The Cincinnati Dinner Train and WDJO Oldies 1480 on your AM dial, Cincinnati's Only oldies station, is excited to come together to bring you this first time event...

A dinner cruise full of 50's music!

Enjoy a three hour train ride and a four course dinner while enjoying the company of WDJO personalities! Come dressed in optional 50's attire and compete for prizes! Tickets are limited, so call and reserve yours now!

The dinner train features dining on three finely restored 1940's vintage dining cars. Also featured, the Queen City Tavern car! The Queen City Tavern is equipped with a full service cash bar with music and two open side doors for viewing as we travel through Cincinnati. The dinner train departs from behind BBQ Revue Restaurant located at 4725 Madison Road. Dinner Train passengers can enjoy free parking in the open lot provided. The train will depart promptly at 6:00PM and travel easterly to downtown Cincinnati, and then to the riverfront. Here, our locomotive will do a run around and change directions to head back to BBQ Revue.

$74.50 per person (sales tax included)
