

Chicago – Washington DC - Chicago

It is impossible to see all of Washington DC in one day, but a daytrip can be fun and rewarding. The most popular attractions in Washington DC are least crowded early in the morning. To get the most out of your day, get an early start. Whether you decide to visit Capitol Hill, the Smithsonian, the White House, or any of the wonderful museums DC, your choices are unlimited as to what DC has to offer

The Moonlight Dome and Amtrak's #50 Cardinal train will take you and your guests through Indiana, Ohio, and West Virginia before arriving in Washington, DC's Union Station the next evening at 6:06 p.m.

Spend the entire next day on your own exploring what the city has to offer.

On day #4, relax in the splendor of the observation dome as we gently roll westward back through West Virginia and Ohio.

After a peaceful night's rest, a continental breakfast will be served before our scheduled arrival is at 10:05 a.m.

The fare includes lease of your private rail car, all rail switching and carrier fees, all food and beverages as noted, your full time chef/attendant, rail car parking fees, on board sleeping accommodations, and all of the "extras" that make traveling by private rail car a uniquely memorable experience!
